TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Itasca codes run on Windows 2000, XP, and Vista. Please read our full OS Support policy at <http://www.itascacg.com/software/os.html>
- Software is licensed to the Organization listed under "Licensee Information" on Page 1. The individual named in that section shall be the License Contact and is responsible for any and all keys on the License. Purchasing and general support requests must come from the License Contact. Software licenses are non-transferable. Please read the full software license at <http://www.itascacg.com/software/support.html>
- Payment terms: Net30
- All PC-executable codes (with the exception of Student Licenses) are software-locked and require a hardware key to operate the code. If you are purchasing an upgrade or option for an existing key, you will be sent a password and instructions to perform the update via email.
- Discounts are available for additional keys bought under a single license; see the Itasca Product List for details, or contact Itasca for a quote.

All sales are subject to the terms specified above.
